

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS
(KANSAS CITY, KANSAS, DOCKET)

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

No. 18-20021-01-JAR-TJJ

DAVID MONHOLLON,

Defendant.

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

Introductory Allegations

1. At all times relevant to this Indictment, DAVID MONHOLLON lived in Jefferson County, Kansas, at an Ozawkie postal address.
2. At all times relevant to this Indictment, First Call Medical Group, LLC, (hereinafter “First Call”) was a limited liability company doing business in the District of Kansas. First Call was in the business of providing temporary medical-staffing services to health care providers.
3. In or about June 2010, DAVID MONHOLLON organized First Call in the state of Kansas by filing articles of incorporation with the office of the Kansas Secretary of State. In that filing, he was listed as the resident agent of First Call, with First Call’s office address being the same as DAVID MONHOLLON’s residential address.

4. Beginning in or about June 2010, and continuing at least until February 1, 2014, DAVID MONHOLLON was First Call's owner and president. He exercised control over First Call's business affairs, including payments by First Call and First Call's bank accounts.

5. Between 2012 and 2014, DAVID MONHOLLON caused First Call to make approximately $144,367 in payments to him, approximately $23,335 in check payments for a mortgage on his personal residence, and approximately $61,381 in payments to Cruisin' Customs (an automobile-related entity that he controlled).

6. The Internal Revenue Service was an agency of the United States Department of the Treasury responsible for administering the tax laws of the United States and collecting taxes owed to the United States.

Employment Tax Withholding

7. The Internal Revenue laws require employers to withhold taxes from their employees' paychecks, including federal income, Medicare, and Social Security taxes. This Indictment refers to these taxes collectively as "payroll taxes." At all times relevant to this Indictment, First Call withheld payroll taxes from its employees' paychecks.

8. First Call was required to make deposits of the payroll taxes to the IRS on a periodic basis, but no later than the last day of the month following the end of the calendar quarter. In addition, First Call was required to file, one month after the conclusion of the calendar quarter, an Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return (Form 941), setting forth the total amount of employee wages and other compensation subject to withholding, the total amount of income taxes withheld, the total amount of Social Security and Medicare taxes withheld, and the total tax deposits.

9. As owner and president of First Call, DAVID MONHOLLON was a “responsible person,” that is, he had the corporate responsibility to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over First Call’s payroll taxes.

10. Throughout the calendar years 2011, 2012, and 2013, First Call withheld payroll taxes from its employees’ paychecks. However, for seven of the nine calendar year quarters beginning in the fourth quarter of 2011 and ending in the fourth quarter of 2013, First Call did not fully pay over the payroll taxes to the IRS.
